

C10 Self Reflection

Consider your own effective practice. Think about how you teach. What kind of opportunities do you give to your pupils?

Teaching

From which aspect of your teaching do you get the most satisfaction?

Relationships

In what ways do you build and maintain effective learning relationships with pupils and between pupils?

Self-efficacy

How do you encourage pupils to persevere, to be resilient, determined, independent, gritty and focussed on their goals?

Collaboration

What opportunities do you provide for pupils to work together towards a common goal?

Peer T&L

How do you facilitate pupils being able to teach each other?

Feedback

In what ways do you offer feedback that is immediate, relevant, meaningful and actionable?

Active Learning

In what ways do you enable pupils to physically, intellectually and emotionally engage with their learning?

Visual Learning

In what ways do you design activities so that pupils get to access, process and express their learning using images?

H.O. Thinking

How do you challenge pupils with questions and connections; analysis, synthesis and evaluation?

Other

